

Cyber Contract

Remember this is a sample. What is most important is to develop this contract together.

Friends

- Parents must approve someone before that person can be added as a friend because friends have access to personal information. Immediate family members will be friendened.
- All friends will be people parents have met, or are verified by parents through another trusted adult.

Photos

- All photos posted will be appropriate and fully clothed.
- Photos posted by others will be monitored and my name blocked if inappropriate or disrespectful to me or others. Profile and friend pictures will be blocked from public viewing.

Information

- No personal profile contact information will be accessible to anyone, including friends. Business information is acceptable.
- We will collaborate on establishing and maintaining application rules and settings, including the downloading of games.
- My name will not be searchable, except for business purposes.
- Parents have all account passwords and edit rights on all profile and setting information.

Behavior

- I will practice appropriate online communication, to prepare myself for other future Web applications. This includes respectful language, careful self-disclosure, basic grammar rules and refusal to participate in any form of cyber-bullying, including the spreading of rumors. I will unfriend anyone who is doing or saying hurtful things.
- In all cyber communication, I will consider, "Would I want my grandmother to read this?"
- Facebook and IMing time is limited to 30 minutes per day. Text messaging is limited to ____.
- I will follow all schools/company rules about cell phone, web and email usage.
- If I have concerns, I will report it to a parent/boss. I will follow pre-established procedures.

I agree to abide by these guidelines. All terms subject to change by mutual agreement. I understand that if I do not follow them, my privileges will be suspended.
